

The Weight

Cam Meekins

Sometimes I wonder if I find you, find you in something
The weight, I just can't feel it
The weight, I just can't feel it
The weight, I just can't feel it
Oh no, oh no
Yeah

Yo
I wish we could go back to simple times when I would wonder
'Cause these are different times, I'm going in and out of comfort
I feel the winter coming, I'm just waiting for the summer
For now I'm blowing diesel in the whip, ain't talking hummer
Gorilla glue gettin' heavy on my eyes, I'm in that slumber
Feel like I'm flyin' closer to the sun, and now I'm sun-burnt
Tequila pouring, in and out of shows, I think I want her
We dipped off in the back, it was a rap, but I don't love her
Had dreams of buying porches, now I'm thinking bout "What color?"
'Cause even when they hate me, I'm just uppin' all my numbers
Just got the Coop from Westbrook, so shout out to the thunder
I lost a couple homies that I love, that was a bummer
They talkin' bout me, well I think I got next
So much in my mind, don't f*ck around, this shit is complex
I ain't got the Source covers, I ain't got the Complex
I just need to make a couple videos and not stress
Got a couple bad hoes I wish I did not text
They ain't gettin' me closer to money, they just want sex
Got a little cash now, more I gotta protect it
They wanna be like me, they see the necklace
I was like: on my last dollars, just schemin' on them Em's
Asking Cas to stay on couches, I was cleanin' shit for rent
Now I'm thinking Calabasas for the real estate invest
On the phone with tax accountants, I ain't realize what I spent
Bad thing from Costa Rica, she been in and out my mind
Been on the grind since '08, and I'm thinkin' it's my time
I used to weigh my self down, but I finally found that pride
Just wanna give a shout out to the homies that supplied
I'm thinking 'bout the low points in my life, I almost died
When I was skippin' classes, breaking down, I almost cried
But then I leveled up 'cause of what I had inside
You gotta put that work in when that vision come alive
Sometimes I wonder if I find you, find you in something
The weight, I just can't feel it
The weight, I just can't feel it
The weight, I just can't feel it
Oh no, oh no
Yeah

Feel like the meaning of life is just doing what you love and just finding a way to make it work. Take out all those distractions and shit they want you to focus on. When really, you only really have a few things you need to execute on, just focus on that shit. Put your blinders on and just go, you know what I'm sayin'?

I'm just finna buy some diamonds 'cause I know that I can
It's more a statement to myself that showing off for the 'gram
Feel like the underdog, finally turning into the champ
I use to be the kid in high school smoking weed in the stands

Just keep the circle close, never tryin' to expand
'Cause they be actin' like they innocent with blood on they hands
Just keep your head up, 'cause the government be sunnin' you fam
I know you fed up, I won't let up, I'mma do what I can Feel like I made mistakes, she wanna talk it out
But I'm just walking out, 'cause I don't know exactly which mistakes she tal kin' bout
I think I gotta find myself before I'm lost
I know I gotta pay the price but I don't know the cost
It's hard to build relationships when I be off the sauce
So I'ma sober up and come back like the f*ckin' boss
Yeah, authentic, this wine cellar isn't rented
Been sinnin', I'm repentin', I'm sendin' blesses to heaven

Sometimes I wonder if I find you, find you in something
The weight, I just can't feel it
The weight, I just can't feel it
The weight, I just can't feel it
Oh no, oh no
Yeah

(Yeah, yeah man. Just gotta keep going, keep flowing. My whole life, as Logi c said, man: "I don't even know anything else", I ain't never had anything e lse, man. This is it. Yeah.)
