

Changes

Cam

There is a town
Somewhere down a country road
I see it now
I take it everywhere I go
The river sways
I can almost hear it now
As if to say
You're not the only one who wants a way out

So, I go
'Cause I don't wanna feel like I don't know you anymore
I memorize those roads

Somewhere out in the big wild country
Someone's fallin' in love in a backseat
Givin' it away
Like their hearts won't ever break
God bless the young hearts sippin' cheap wine
Gettin' drunk with their friends for the first time
Thinkin' nothing's gonna change
Till everything changes

They never leave
They're all havin' babies now
Watchin' daytime TV
Livin' off the gossip of a cruel small town

So, I go
'Cause I don't wanna feel like you don't know me anymore
Don't recognize my face

Somewhere out in the big wild country
Someone's fallin' in love in a backseat
And givin' it away
Like their hearts won't ever break

God bless the young hearts sippin' cheap wine
Gettin' drunk with their friends for the first time
Thinkin' nothing's gonna change
Till everything changes

There ain't nothing here for me anymore
They say they don't hear from me anymore
And I don't wanna hear it anymore

Somewhere out in the big wild country
I was fallin' in love in a backseat
Givin' it away
Like my heart won't ever break
Had such a young heart sippin' cheap wine
Gettin' drunk with my friends for the first time
Thinkin' nothing's gonna change
Till everything changes