

Nevermine

Cam

All of it fades to gray
Deep breaths
You know it had to break
And I fold my arms
So these vital organs
Don't slip out my ribs
'Cause they'd like to stay here
And I'd like to stay here
Too

All of the sound goes out
Keeping these much-needed words in my mouth
I hold my tongue
Like it was you
It's turning me blue
But if I could speak, dear
I'd scream so the gods hear
Love me too

Nothing I could say
Could make you stay
Nothing I could do
Will get through to you
I feel stupid, I feel bruised
I feel out of line
You were never mine to lose
Never mine

Into your wilderness
Fearless
Fear of abandonment
Thought you were the one
Place that I could fit
Guess I imagined it

Nothing I could say
Could make you stay
Nothing I could do
Will get through to you
I feel stupid, I feel bruised
I feel out of line
You were never mine to lose
Never mine
You were never mine
Never mine
Never mine
