

Healing

CamelPhat

I gave myself some space, let it all just fade away
I had to feel it, I had to believe it
And if I turn and break, will someone catch my fall from grace?
I wanna feel it, I wanna believe it
You call me like a wave, turn me like a page
Running through my veins, spinning on my brain

Oh, it feels like I'm healing, like I'm healing
It feels like I'm healing, like I'm healing
Oh, it feels like I'm healing, like I'm healing
It feels like I'm healing, like I'm healing
Oh, it feels, oh, oh

Oh, it feels like I'm healing, like I'm healing
It feels like I'm healing, like I'm healing
Oh, it feels like I'm healing, like I'm healing
It feels like I'm healing, like I'm healing
Oh, oh, oh
