Silenced

CamelPhat

Stars above
Used to be my eyes
So low
My high is gone
Swallowed by the tides
So strong

Been losing my way, baby
Been losing my way
Tell me what you waiting for
Tell me what you need
You don't need to suffer here alone in silence
Come and let me hold you close
Wash away the tears
You don't need to suffer here alone in silence

(Silence)

I fell
Heavy as a stone

Sinking
My skies are cold
But something in my bones
Is calling
Been losing my way, baby
Been losing my way
Tell me what you waiting for
Tell me what you need
You don't need to suffer here alone in silence
Come and let me hold you close
Wash away the tears
You don't need to suffer here alone in silence

(Silence)
You don't need to suffer here alone in silence
