

Down to the river and into the sun
To sit with an old friend of mine
John will you tell me who you have become Cos I think of you often and smile

Hey it's alright if you find me trite
The lines on my face are clear and in sight

We talked until morning
Patiently waiting for dawning
Top forty hits on your Denon
Oh John I remember everything

Don't live with regret because you only get one life
I know this, do you know this, because she did?
Anxiety levels really good for my waistline
And I know I've been given a lifeline
Go to the cinema to be alone to cry
You can't get next to me and I have got no idea...
Why

We talked until morning
Patiently waiting for dawning
Top forty hits on your Denon
Oh John (Oh John)

We talked until morning
Patiently waiting for dawning
Top forty hits on your Denon
Oh John I remember everything

We talked until morning
Patiently waiting for dawning
Top forty hits on your Denon
Oh John (Oh John)

We talked until morning
Patiently waiting for dawning
Top forty hits on your Denon
Oh John I remember everything

Elusive Butterfly
Brown-eyed girls who made you want to die
I know you tried and you tried
I am sorry
For giving you a dream
And then letting it die
