

Only a Dream

Camera Obscura

Will I miss you now that you have gone?
So painful not to kiss your cheek at dawn
The sun came up and the sun stayed warm
Now you're in my heart and now it's torn

You're in my heart and now I'm torn

I don't wanna talk with anybody else
I don't wanna show up even for myself
Now this will test me and I know I'll dwell
Do I have what it takes to please myself?
Do I have what it takes to love myself?

Is this is a prison or a dream?
We can keep you close when you want to leave
Things are rarely as they seem

It's only a dream, a dream
It's only a dream

Now you could trick me into telling you facts
About my future and about my past
With a soft C I'll give you good advice

It's only a dream, a dream
It's only a dream
