

Comets

Cameron Dallas

You say the words and I'll be gone
So long
Girl it hurts to know that nothing's ever gonna change
Even if I write a thousand songs
About you

When I'm lonely
I tell myself I like you but I want you to hold me
Closer than before, can you close the door, slowly?
Our shit on the floor, anything so you don't leave
Don't leave

Why can't I wake up from the dream that I'm stuck in?
I see your face in the stars, in the comets
I know my wishes won't come true
As long as I'm in love with you
