

Fragile

Cameron Whitcomb

Guess I'll always be him
Even after treatment
Everything that he did, I relive
The kid that you knew
With holes in his shoes
Who stole from his family to feed his abuse
Said I'd never be back
Thought that I could detach
Nothing like a relapse to rehash
The kid who was scared
So handle with care

'Cause darling, I'm fragile
A little too fragile
Wall after wall
With cracks in 'em all
I know in your head, I'm a hundred feet tall
I'm sorry, I'm fragile
So if you can't handle how human I am
Yeah, I'll understand
Baby, be honest, could you love a man who's Fragile?

Wonder what I look like
Looking out from your eyes
Do you see the new me
Or the same guy?
How brittle my bones
The ink on my skin
I blacked out the windows so you can't see in

'Cause darling, I'm fragile
A little too fragile
Wall after wall
There's cracks in 'em all
I know in your head, I'm a hundred feet tall
I'm sorry, I'm fragile, oh yeah
So if you can't handle how human I am
I'll, I'll understand
Baby, be honest, could you love a man who—

Can't forgive and won't forget
I got empathy and empty threads
But it's up to me to call you back
'Cause I want you back, yeah, I want you back
But this fragile ego, where I have to prove to people
That we're equal, but we both know I'm full of shit
Pig in lipstick, still the same kid
Still the same kid

I'm fragile
I'm sorry, I'm fragile

Yeah, I'll understand
Fragile?
