

My Man Is Married But Not to Me

Camille

My man is married but not me
My man is married but not me
My man is married but not me

He's a, he's a he's a
He's such a bad liar
I don't know why I keep pretending I'm a free lover
He thinks about me
When me sleeps with her
But I'm one hundred percent sure he'll never tell her

My man is married but not to me
My man is married but not to me
My man is married but not to me

He's a, he's a, he's a
He's such a hard lover
I don't know why I put myself
In such a bad situation

One day he'll dump her
For 100 percent sure I'm better than her

My man is married but not to me

But of course, soon he'll come and pick me up
On his horse
White horse
Horse, horse, horse, horse, horse, horse, horse, horse

Your man is married but not to you
Your man is married but not to you
Your man is married but not to you
Your man is married but not to you
