

Wings

CamO

Alright, alright, alright
The way you touch my thighs
Those eyes, you look too fine
Those smiles, I'll sell my pride
They shouldn't even try
Threw a 50 in the sky
Take a 50 on the line
I see them bitches cry

Throw those wings up high
Even through the night
Got you shine a light
(Almost went through all the way, all the way)
(Ooh, nah)

Assure you, you can find nobody better
Call me when blue, I'll change your weather
A thong under fur I don't need a sweater
Love to play numbers, but I'm hard to measure
I can't even walk around the club
I don't wanna talk to all these bums
Try to keep it honest, but I'm done (ooh)

You know me better
So what's the hesitation
Patience and being clever
I'm way apart from all these letters
But you know me better
You touch me like a soft feather
You know me better, baby
You know me better, baby

And the things that you say and the way that you say it makes all my pain wa sh away
Everything fades
But you give me neck everyday leave a mark
It don't fade
I heard what you said, and I feel it all-day
There's no other place this safe
No other way to explain
Let's spend it, all of this cake that I make

You know I'm a star baby
The pressures off only with you
And I never thought of leaving you
I never thought we'd pull this through
(Almost went through all the way, all the way)
(Ooh, nah)

Hm, when I see your eyes
My lips get dry
Even through the night
I can see your light
I wanna turn you on
□□ □□ □ □
And let me show you off (show you off)

Just want us to blossom
That extra bag, yea I want some
We hit hit with no condom
If you a freak, I'mma throw some
So tell me anytime anything you want
I just like the way, just the way you are
You play no games put flames on my heart
If we fall apart, it'd be my fault

Alright alright alright
The way you touch my thighs
Those eyes you look too fine
Those smiles I'll sell my pride
They shouldn't even try
Threw a 50 in the sky
Take a 50 on the line
I see them bitches cry
