

Harmful

Camouflage

Harmful
I touch your skin
I feel you
The truth within
And all I can do
Is hope you feel it too.

There's the pain inside
My body 'n' soul
It's alright
After all my sweet lies
The bitter thorns in your side
Twists on and on
And all I can do
Is hope to feel it too.

Follow me to where it's coming from
We will find the place where we belong
There is no one who compares to you
And I hope that you can feel it too
That you can feel it too
And I hope that you can feel it too

That you can feel it too
And I hope...

Harmful you touch my skin
I feel you
The truth within
And all I can do
And all I can do
And all I can do
Is hope you feel it too.

*Harmful
That you can feel it too
And I hope that you can feel it too
*Harmful
And I hope that you can feel it too
And I hope that you can feel it too
And I hope that you can feel it too
And I hope that you can feel it too
Feel it too
*Harmful
And I hope...
That you can feel it too
