Jealous

Camp Cope

You love me tender
You don't love me at all
Invite me over for another sleepless night against the wall

And I've got a place name
Like you've got one, too
I'm getting eaten alive out here, but I do it again for you

I do, would you?

I'm so jealous
I've been dragging this chain around
Yeah, I'm so jealous
My love, I'll run you down

Take me, baby
You're never in the wrong
I'm so jealous of your dog

Still got my collar on
It used to choke me out
I never really was into it, but I'm sentimental now

Like I never party
Bit weird if I did
I'd rather spend my nights alone goin' over it again
And again, in my head

Oh, I'm so jealous
I've been dragging this chain around
Yeah, I'm so jealous
My love, I'll run you down

Take me, baby
You're never in the wrong
I'm so jealous of your

I want your attention (Want your attention)
Still double texting (Still double texting)
Like I've got nothing left to lose

And it's just who you are (It's just who you are)
Not giving away too much (Not giving away too much)
I'll take your scraps as if they're food

I'm so jealous
I'll take anything you give to me
Yeah, I'm so jealous
Oh, I'm laying' at your feet

Take me, baby
You're never in the wrong
I'm so jealous
Yeah, I'm so jealous of your dog
