

Lulu Land

Camper Van Beethoven

Pictures of movies stars fade and grow old
The hot dogs and pretzels are always served cold
Take nothing with you when you leave but your soul
In lulu land

How can you lose when you choose what you feel?
The scab will fall off when the wound starts to heal
Bugs on your side and it's your turn to deal
In lulu land

In lulu land, the wall are soft and dark
In lulu land, the secret heart
Is in command
In lulu land

How can you lose when you live in the past?
Nothing can happen that happens too fast
Live is a furnace and love is the blast
In lulu land

Where innocent promises turn into bad debts
Where things that you do you live to regret
Your life is a movie and the world is a set
In lulu land

In lulu land, the wall are soft and dark
In lulu land, the secret heart
Is in command
In lulu land
