

Come Home

Can't Swim

Heard everything on the first floor
Where they said you were rushed
From your front door
So please tell me where
Ran up the stairs in a heartbeat
Where I read off your name from a time sheet
So please tell me where

What an awful curse to see you at your worst
So come home now
(I'm not fine, I'm not what I say I am)
(I've lost hope, I've lost hope in everything)
With your tiny frame, I swore I'd block the pain
So come home now
(So come home now, so come home now, so come home)

Lost everything with a mistake
Thinking back all the times that you had faith
So please tell me where

What an awful curse to see you at your worst
So come home now
(I'm not fine, I'm not what I say I am)
(I've lost hope, I've lost hope in everything)
With your tiny frame, I swore I'd block the pain
So come home now
(So come home now, so come home now, so come home)

If I could stand up taller than the tallest of the trees
Would you treat me like a big brother?
I gave you all the time I had
But you wanted more
I did my best, so why bother?

What an awful curse to see you at your worst
So come home now
(I'm not fine, I'm not what I say I am)
(I've lost hope, I've lost hope in everything)
With your tiny frame, I swore I'd block the pain
So come home now
(So come home now, so come home now, so come home)
