Can't Swim

I found you late at night
Running in circles
You told me, you're alright
Right running in circles

Cursed from the start
Our silhouettes met in the dark
The shape of us caused by the friction
Was it too soon?
Then the doubt ran through your veins
Lost all concern with saving face
Higher than mountains we climbed the stairs
Pulled me inside "we're finally here"

And I don't want to lose you
I've been searching long enough
And everytime I see you
I'm falling more in love

Is it enough, I stayed?
Did it make you feel a certain way?
As you took off I held on and we both rode the wave
Say anything I give you everything did my best to get it
Back, face the facts, I'm the reason that we feel off from the track

And I don't want to lose you
I've been searching long enough
And everytime I see you
I'm falling more in love

Would the old you like the new you?
Not sure what it was I didn't have to
Would the old me like the new me?
I could make it right, I could make you see

And I don't want to lose you
I've been searching long enough
And everytime I see you
I'm falling more in love
