

i heard they found you face down inside your living room

Can't Swim

I heard they found you face down inside your living room
The last we talked I wished you well and said I'd see you soon
Sad to say the message never made it through
If people knew what you had done they'd probably do it too

Mistakes and regrets
Mistakes and regrets
Mistakes

I thought you said it'd be me and you
Now you're gone what am I supposed to do
For what?
Did you know you put your life at stake
Felt like torture just to stay awake
I thought you said it'd be me and you

They held the service on a Sunday in the afternoon
The candles burning were reminding me of your perfume
Sad to say we never got those damn tattoos
I begged you go see somebody but you always refused

Mistakes and regrets
Mistakes and regrets
Mistakes

I thought you said it'd be me and you
Now you're gone what am I supposed to do
For what?
Did you know you put your life at stake
Felt like torture just to stay awake
I thought you said it'd be me and you

What now do I do
Make a plot for us two
Lay them side by side
Double suicide

One stone
Two names
Underneath a twin grave
Here lie best of friends
Until we meet again

I thought you said it'd be me and you
I thought you said it'd be me and you
I thought you said it'd be me and you
I thought you said it'd be me and you...
