

Everyday Joe

Canaan Smith

Every day Joe wakes up with the dawn
Throws them Levi's on the same way
Every day Joe takes a coffee black
And a seat in the back; the same place
Leaves a 2 dollar tip on a 10 dollar tab
But the morning he left a little more than that
Made a dent in the rent for a single mom waitress
Everyday Joe knew it wouldn't go wasted and

What a smile might mean to a stranger
How far a good deed goes
How what you do now comes back 'round later
Life's kinda like dominos
You could save the day
With loose pocket change
If a guy in a Carhartt coat can do it, who knows...
You might just be the next everyday Joe

Everyday Joe is a Good News preacher
A won't quit teacher
A guy with a sign on the side of the road
They're everywhere you look
Anywhere you go
Everyday Joe is anybody who knows

What a smile might mean to a stranger
How far a good deed goes
How what you do now comes back 'round later
Life's kinda like dominos
You could save the day
With loose pocket change
If a guy in a Carhartt coat can do it, who knows...
You might just be the next everyday Joe

Everyday Joe knows
What a smile might mean to a stranger
How far a good deed goes
That what you do now comes back around later
Life's all about seeds you sow
You could save the day
With loose pocket change
If a guy in a Carhartt coat can do it, who knows...
You might just be the next everyday Joe
You might just be the next everyday Joe
