

Life Ain't Fair

Canaan Smith

Life ain't fair, everybody knows it
Good guys don't always win
It is what it is, you can't control it
That's how it's always been
Oh, but you ain't gonna hear me complaining

'Cause if I got what I had coming
If I got what I deserved
I guarantee that I'd have nothing
'Posed to good as you, for sure
And either finding you was lucky
Or my momma sent some prayers
A guy like me, girl like you
I thank God life ain't fair

Life ain't fair, if you don't believe it
Take a long hard look around
Ain't always rhyme, ain't always a reason
For the way some things turn out
Ah, but you ain't gonna see me tryna change it

'Cause if I got what I had coming
If I got what I deserved
I guarantee that I'd have nothing
'Posed to good as you, for sure
And either finding you was lucky
Or my momma sent some prayers
A guy like me, girl like you
I thank God life ain't fair

No life ain't fair, it don't make sense
But in my case, it's for the best

'Cause if I got what I had coming
If I got what I deserved
I guarantee that I'd have nothing
'Posed to good as you, for sure
And either finding you was lucky
Or my momma sent some prayers
A guy like me, girl like you
I thank God life ain't fair
A guy like me, girl like you
I thank God life ain't fair

(Life ain't fair
Life ain't fair
Life ain't fair)
Ooh, life ain't fair
(Life ain't fair
Life ain't fair
Life ain't fair)
I thank God life ain't fair
