

Still

Canaan Smith

Girl why don't we go and clear our heads
Throw two sleeping bags in my Chevy bed
And ice up a couple cold ones in a Coleman cooler
Let's stake out a spot where the ridge is blue
Let the mountains do what the mountains do
All I need is you and
That place up in the pines where you can

Still get lost in a holler and find an old copper
Still hear a white tail coming down a game trail
It's so still
The Whippoorwill will wake us up with a song
And you'll still be the high I'll still be on

Just two more turns on a two-lane road, so
Turn on the stars and turn off the phone
Tie up your long brown hair in your red bandana
That last kiss got me thinkin'
Baby, I can't wait to get you where we can

Still get lost in a holler and find an old copper
Still hear a white tail coming down a game trail
It's so still
The Whippoorwill will wake us up with a song
And you'll still be the high I'll still be on

Baby, all I need is you and
A little heaven on Earth
Like this where you can

Still get lost in a holler and find an old copper
Still
Hear a white tail coming down a game trail
It's so still
The Whippoorwill will wake us up with a song
And you'll still be the high I'll still be on You'll still be the high I'll still be on Oh, I'll still be on
