

Hang On in There (God Is At The End Of Your Rope)

Candi Staton

Hang on in there brother, God is at the end of your rope
Oh, hang on in there brother, God is at the end of your rope
He won't let you fall, He is Master Lord of all
Oh, hang on in there brother, God is at the end of your rope

The troubles you are faced with will be over before too long
Oh, the burdens you are bearing are only there to make you strong
The road seems rough, the mountains seem high
Don't give up, just keep on trying
Hang on in there brother, God is at the end of your rope

Hang on in there sister, God is at the end of your rope
Oh, hang on in there, God is at the end of your rope
He won't let you fall, He is Master Lord of all
Hang on in there sister, God is at the end of your rope

It will soon be over, the sun is gonna shine again
Dark clouds are passing over, your blessings are pouring in
So light up your countenance and stand on the word
Because every prayer you've prayed is already heard
Hang on in there sister, God is at the end of your rope

Oh, hang on in there sister, God is at the end of your rope
Hang on in there mother, God is at the end of your rope
He won't let you fall, He is Master Lord of all
Hey, hang on in there, God is at the end of your rope

Hang on in there daughter, God is at the end of your rope
Oh yea, hang on in there, God is at the end of your rope
He won't let you fall, He is Master Lord of all
Hang on in there brother, God is at the end of your rope
