Candice Alley

The day turns to night
You're burning from your heat
But there's no time wasted
I'm falling at your feet
And I'm standing in the corner
But you don't know who I am
And I'm alone now
Because you're something I can't have

I wish you would dream with me
If you could only see
I'd wish you'd dream with me
If you could only see
