

A Stone's Throw Away

Candlebox

Did I feel this way back then?

Did you wake up to the sound of pouring rain? fading days of blue rush past your eyes

Would you lose yourself in someone else's vain?
or should you shout your mind out when the loss began?

Bring it on!
high until you washed it all away
it's all the same
i realized it through this song i sing out loud and call your name do you feel i'm only someone you could never ever know?
in it all you'll find
you see you're not that far from me so walk and hold your head up high
a stone's throw away

I feel right now like i felt way back then the center of my life i lost it all

Never ever knew how much i'd loved until you left, you're gone fell right now like i was chasing you the same way

sing out loud and call your name do you feel the only someone
in it all you find
to walk and hold your head up high
a stone's throw away

I would like this stone to roll!

High until i washed it all away
sing out loud and call my name

You're just a stone's throw away

until you're gone
never knew how much i'd love

Feel right now like i felt way back then the center of my life i lost it, lost it all away lost it all away
