

Crazy

Candlebox

You took some time to come to mind
I must admit I was all right but there you were, right there you were
And I can't shake you from inside
(I can't shake you from inside)

A thousand years could pass us by I must admit I'll still be lost, I'll still be broken there you were, right there you were
And I can't shake you from my mind, no
(I can't shake you from inside)

I'm crazy for this moment, crazy for your love
So crazy I admit the stupid things I've done
I'm crazy for the tension, crazy for the buzz
So crazy thinking I could take you like the sweetest drug

It took some time to figure out
I must admit I made it hard but there you were, right there you were
And I can fare this battleground
(I can fare this battleground)

Ten thousand years could pass us by
I will admit I'll still be lost, I'll still be broken there you were, right
there you were
My confidant, my sweet ally
(My confidant, my sweet ally)

I'm crazy for this moment, crazy for your love
So crazy I admit the stupid things I've done
I'm crazy for the tension, crazy for the buzz
So crazy thinking I could take you like the sweetest drug

Ohhh
Ohhh
Ohhh

And I can't shake you from my mind, no
(I can't shake you from my mind)

I'm crazy for this moment, crazy for your love
So crazy, I admit, the stupid things I've done
I'm crazy for the tension, crazy for the buzz
I'm crazy, baby
I'm crazy, baby

I'm crazy for this moment, crazy for your love
So crazy I admit, the stupid stupid fucking things I've done
I'm crazy for the tension, crazy for the buzz
So crazy thinking I could take you like the sweetest drug

I'm crazy, baby, ohhh
(I can't shake you from my mind)
I'm crazy, baby, ohhh
I'm crazy, baby, ohhh
(I can't shake you from my mind)
I'm crazy, baby
Crazy, crazy

(I can't shake you from my mind)
Crazy, crazy, crazy
(I can't shake you from my mind)
