

Maze

Candlebox

You're a maze to me, I'm so lost in you
A spiral staircase taking me high and low
You carry me when I let you down
Like ocean waves you toss me to and fro

Every breath in me, oh belongs to you
Toss the key cause I've nowhere else to go
All is said and done, our bones turn to dust
Your love's still the only truth I've known

And I'll never understand

Amaze me, amaze me

A spiral staircase taking me high and low
Your love's still the only truth I've known
Where else left is there for me to go
Your love's still the only truth I've known

And I'll never understand

Amaze me, amaze me
Amaze me, amaze me
Amaze me (Amaze), amaze me (Amaze)
Amaze me (Amaze), amaze me (Amaze)
