

My Weakness

Candlebox

She's the, she's the hard stuff
A dive into a wishing well
Make your peace, a prayer before you start to spill
She's a lie you know you're gonna have to sell
So shut, so shut your mind up
The time for second guessing's gone
You try pretending she's a never ending cyclone
You wanna live just a little bit before you're done

Baby
Self-medicated
Another lost weekend
You're the side effect
And I'm your drama witness
You know that you're my weakness

Maybe
We're overrated
So the
Row me in the deep end
I need sedating
And I'm your drama witness
You know that you're my weakness
You know that you're my weakness

She's a, she's a pill pop
A temporary pleasure pull
Make your knees drop
Swearing up and down you will
Never ever stop trying to roll a rock uphill
She's the, she's the hard stuff
You dive into a wishing well
Make your peace, a prayer before you start to spill
She's a lie you know you're gonna have to sell

Baby
Self-medicated
Another lost weekend
You're the side effect
And I'm your drama witness
You know that you're my weakness

Maybe
We're overrated
So throw me in the deep end
I need sedating
And I'm your drama witness
You know that you're my weakness
You know that you're my weakness

Spinning round an
D round, barely off the bottom
Going down, down, slowly turning rotten
We're spinning round and round and barely off the bottom

You know that you're my weakness
Self-medicated

Another lost weekend
You know that you're my weakness

Maybe
We're overrated
I need sedating
And I'm your drama witness
You know that you're my weakness
You know that you're my weakness

Self-medicated
I need sedating
And I'm your drama witness
You know that you're my weakness
You know that you're my weakness

I need sedating
