

Crucified

Candlemass

Here comes the river again, let's catch the day, and go far away
And here comes infinity, takes hold of me, into the blue

Crucified, forever and ever
Mystified, hell or heaven?
Oh the nails, all the black flowers
I'm de-humanized, this fragile hour

Crucified
Crucified
Crucified
Crucified in the blue light

I sacrificed, on the altar of madness
Gave and fell, like the martyrs of mercy
I'm drifting like debris, into a new tomorrow?
Hate or love, or is it over?

Crucified
Crucified
Crucified
Crucified in the blue light

Crucified
Crucified
Crucified
Crucified in the blue light

I've said it a thousand times
Oh I paid the prize
Let's walk into the setting sun
It's a loaded gun, and they'll be there for us
Those crosses, on the island of decay

Crucified
Crucified
Crucified
Crucified in the blue light
