

Endless Riots

Cane Hill

On my own stuck in disarray
Killing time till I know I'll end up grey
Cloudy eyes smile on my face
When it fades away I know what waits

Up against the wall, up against the wall
Know I'm gonna fall, know I'm gonna fall
Up against the wall, up against the wall
Know I'm gonna fall...

You're lost and you can't hide it
Why can't I face the silence
On and on and on
I make something
On and on and on
Outta nothing
Defined by my defiance
My thoughts are endless riots
On and on and on
I make something
On and on and on
Outta nothing

See the face of someone else in my reflection
Is it me or a vision of depression
Craving joy is becoming my obsession
I can't get enough

Up against the wall, up against the wall
Know I'm gonna fall, know I'm gonna fall
Up against the wall, up against the wall
Know I'm gonna fall...

You're lost and you can't hide it
Why can't I face the silence
On and on and on
I make something
On and on and on
Outta nothing
Defined by my defiance
My thoughts are endless riots
On and on and on
I make something
On and on and on
Outta nothing
