

Why?

Cane Hill

Stay, stay, stay away from your house again
My body breaks in the wake of your hurricane
Baby, please don't stop playing with my fucking head
No eyes do lock in this empty bed

We could drown in this
Oh won't you come down?
Come down?
Why?
Why won't you come down
With me?

Queen of hearts, tongues in heads will roll
Too young to stop, you took half my soul
Baby, please don't stop playing with my fucking head
No eyes do lock in this empty bed

We could drown in this
Oh won't you come down?
Come down
Why?
Why won't you come down?
With me, we can sink

We could drown in this
Oh won't you come down?
Down
Why?
Why won't you come down
With me?

Why?
Why won't you come?
We could sink, just a little
Down, down
Why won't you come?
