Allow me to introduce myself
Peace, good to meet ya, the four-legged creature from Giza
Taking orders from the spiritual leaders
Speechless, save your energy for when you gon' need it
'Cause when you see it, you ain't gon' believe it
Top five nicest lyricist alive, it ain't no secret
Underneath the blue skies over Egypt
Genius, crown chakra reaches nine ether
But the rhymes are not designed for the non-believer
Medical reefer, Cuban cohiba keeper
'Follow the Leader', you go green we go greener
Take a breather, don't beef with the black behemoth
In a wife beater, can't beat 'em on the mic neither
Wings mean flight, flight means freedom
Freedom from a legion of demons tryna to defeat 'em
Such a remarkable speaker, an incredible teacher
Every feature, every verse, most his albums are deep, son
