

Drain You Empty

Cannibal Corpse

Plead absolution
Pray to your god
Your death is ever so near
Seek out salvation
Cry out in vain
Your world is slipping away
Away

Drain you empty of life

Bleed you, siphon off your spirit
Now enter the void
Exsanguinate
Deplete you, unrelenting
I dissolve your resolve
Demonize, begin your transformation

Drain you empty
Drain you empty of life
Drain you of your everlasting soul
I desecrate, mortality be gone

Devastate you from within
As I levitate you from consciousness, you diminish
Catheterize, bleed the heart and veins
Amputate, for all eternity

Abdicate then paralyze, destabilize and neutralize
Eradication
Dominance with absolute power
Permeate then ostracize, devitalize and martyrize
Obliteration
Intent with eternal abhorrence

Drain you empty
Drain you empty of life
Drain you of your everlasting soul
I desecrate, mortality be gone

Degenerate
Annihilate your final breath
Consummate, embraced by the touch of death
Deconsecrate
Exterminate your final breath
Apostatize, redemption be gone

Shed the flesh to mind
Death welcomes you
Prepare the funeral dirge
As it was told

Reforged into demise
Afflicted by dread, I strike you down
Prepare the funeral dirge
As it was told

Drain you empty

Drain you empty
