

Pitchfork Impalement

Cannibal Corpse

Screams were so loud, the tearing of flesh caused agonizing pain
Wrought-iron tines did penetrate the skull

Holes through the bones
Holes through the organs
Powerful thrusts of hatred from the blackest of souls

Piercing the skin with violence so brutal cannot be explained
This evil is never contained

By stabbing the bones
By stabbing the organs
Powerful thrusts of hatred will claim one more soul

Gouging attack, punctured
Vicious assault, torture
Gashing away, ruptured
Heinous relief, die

Dispersal of bones
Decaying of organs
Powerful thrusts of hatred, life from the living I stole

Killing again with violence so brutal cannot be explained
This evil has always sustained

Gouging attack punctured
Vicious assault, torture
Gashing away, ruptured
Heinous relief, die

Screams were so loud, the tearing of flesh caused agonizing pain
Wrought-iron tines did penetrate the skull

Penetrate the skull
Penetrate the skull
Penetrate the skull

Pitchfork impalement

Savagely torn and covered in blood
Murdered relentlessly, lacking remorse for what has been done
As the next victim screams

Pitchfork impalement

Gouging attack, punctured
Vicious assault, torture
Gashing away, ruptured
Heinous relief, die
