

Always Will

Cannons

So hard to let you go, baby
And I find it hard to try without you
Take one step at a time, honey
'Cause I don't wanna live without you

'Cause I love you still
'Cause I love you still

Burn me down and burn me out, baby
And I'm running out of time to start new Tell me what did I do wrong, honey
'Cause I'm feeling lost inside without you

'Cause I love you still
And I always will
And I always will
And I cross my heart
And I always will

I'm feeling hot-blooded
And hysterical lately
Jesus didn't even try to save me
Now I'm trapped inside your labyrinth, baby
And the tears in my eyes
Make the whole world hazy

'Cause I love you still
'Cause I love you still
And I always will
And I always will
'Cause I love you still
And I always will
And I always will
'Cause I love you still
And I always will
And I always will...
