

Down On Love

Cannons

I lay back, feel the sun on my face
I close my eyes and I think about things
What I did cannot be undone
I'm well aware it was a hit and run
There's a new moon, new moon rising
And I'm standing here apologizing

'Cause I've been down on the love for you
And I can tell that you feel it too
And I know I'm just a little too late
But I can change, baby, I can change
'Cause I've been down on the love for you
And I can tell that you feel it too
And I know I'm just a little too late
But I can change, baby, I can change

Far out and lost in space
You look to me and I lose track of days
We had a chance to make this right
Dusk on the left and dawn on the right

There's a new moon, new moon rising
And I'm standing here apologizing
'Cause I've been down on the love for you
And I can tell that you feel it too
And I know I'm just a little too late
But I can change, baby, I can change

I've been down on the love for you
'Cause I've been down
'Cause I've been down
I've been down on the love for you
'Cause I've been down
'Cause I've been down

'Cause I've been down on the love for you
And I can tell that you feel it too
And I know I'm just a little too late
But I can change, baby, I can change
'Cause I've been down on the love for you
And I can tell that you feel it too
And I know I'm just a little too late
But I can change, baby, I can change
'Cause I've been down on the love for you
And I can tell that you feel it too
And I know I'm just a little too late
But, I can change, baby I can change
