

Love Chained

Cannons

Tell me, baby, things will never change
Yet I know the truth, honey, nothing stays the same
I can feel you pulsing through my veins
Just wrap me up, I'm going down in love chained

Baby, it's true
You know how to
Tell all your lies to me
Make me believe it was me
I'm soaking the blue
Down on my knees for you
Send all your love to me
I dream a dream for me

I'm telling you, baby, say it to your face
Tell you I want you, tell you I need you all the same
I know it might feel kinda strange
I don't need names, I'm going down in love chained

Say that you want me, but I know that you need me
I can feel you, I can hear you calling out to me
Say that you want me, but I know that you need me
I can feel you and it's only you I see

Baby, it's true
You know how to
Tell all your lies to me
Make me believe it was me
I'm soaking the blue
Down on my knees for you
Send all your love to me
I dream a dream for me (Send all your love to me)

Baby, it's true (I dream a dream for me)
Baby, it's true
Send all your love to me
I dream a dream for me
