

Miracle

Cannons

I lost you
You told me that you lost me too
Are we through?
So tired of waiting here for you
You told me that you love me, baby
But it feels more like you're fucking it up
And you only ever drive me crazy
Tell me when enough is enough

I'm waiting on a miracle
This feeling is so typical
It's feeling kinda criminal
It's gonna take a miracle

I gave you
A loving that was oh so true
Wish I knew
But there's nothing left that I can do

So I'm waiting on a miracle
This feeling is so typical
It's feeling kinda criminal
It's gonna take a miracle

You got me losing my mind
Just here wasting time
You got me losing my mind
I'm just here wasting time
You got me losing my mind
I'm just here wasting time
You got me losing my mind
Just here wasting time

You've got me losing my mind (Miracle)
I'm just here wasting time (Typical)
You've got me losing my mind (Criminal)
Just here wasting time (It's gonna take a miracle)
You've got me losing my mind (Miracle)
I'm just here wasting time (Typical)
Losing my mind (Criminal)
Wasting time (It's gonna take a miracle)
You've got me losing my mind
