

Touch

Cannons

Every little move that you make, I'll make it with you
And every little vow that you break, I'll break it with you

Oh, you've got that touch
Oh, you've got that touch
Oh, you've got that touch
Oh, you've got that touch

Every little thing that I see reminds me of you
And I'll be everything that you need, it's all for you

Oh, you've got that touch
Oh, you've got that touch
Oh, you've got that touch
Oh, you've got that touch

We rode into the valley of death, now it's do or die
(I can't shake this feeling over you, shake this feeling over y ou)
We rode in through the valley of death, now it's do or die
(I can't shake this feeling over you, shake this feeling over y ou)
We rode into the valley of death, now it's do or die
(I can't shake this feeling over you, shake this feeling over y ou)
We rode in through the valley of death, now it's do or die

Oh, you've got that touch
Oh, you've got that touch
Oh, you've got that touch
Oh, you've got that touch
