

Alive

CANON

Do you ever feel
None of this you see is real
While standing in a crowd
We are alone.

Do you ever find
Each belief you have is blind.
And no you're not allowed
To make one of your own.

People here are hypnotized
They see with only eyes
Unnoticed walking through our lives.
I'm not the least surprised
Everywhere is advertised.
We live inside it's lies.
Once you've come to realize,
You'll feel again unparalyzed
