

Full Plates

CANON

I know they want it all

What's up takes this to the head like a bottle son
You better practice what you preach that's the motto, son
And they think they smart cuz they memorize verses, Boy anybody can regurgitate sermons and I ain't even impressed by the ones i n churches

Folk be tryna swallow more bible knowledge, Get a couple as in bible college that's cool but what about tryna model that book you holding Aye try to follow

Some talk it good but don't walk good, they eat up facts and don't meditate
They a sit around and have deep talks but the lifestyle so disarrayed

Can't have more without being faithful, I heard that said from so and so Or maybe that was said by such and such That's the goal, now hustle up

We don't need no more talk boxes
I been down for that education
Sponges don't just soak it up, they squeeze it out, that's application

I know they want it all, I know they want it all yea [x2]
1st round hold up, I don't know what you thought of, that second round for e mpty plates until they eat that all up [x2]

Now don't try say and say I don't love knowledge, I ain't hatin on geeks bru
I love that wisdom that come around so toss it up, get geeked up

But you can't keep tryna get more Bible and you don't even manifest what you had, just greedy bru, unfaithful don't be that dude that talk but can't walk it out

And I ain't even gone use metaphors It's enough for me tryna just spell it out, instead of tryna get super deep just take the wisdom then flesh it out

You probably think I ain't go deep enough, like spit a couple triple entend re right
Metaphors, that real rap, say a line that'll smash mics

But I ain't tryna be nobody favorite rapper,
I just wanna give you that real life,
I got views for anybody,
That's insight, and it's insight

Application yes application live the gospel just be about it,
That I'll livin' that real difference, between yo talk and real life I promi se

Yea they so greedy eating everything
They talking second but they plates got everything Bible college seminary got everything, and ain't seen no fruit but still tha t want everything

I know they want it all, I know they want it all yea [x2]
1st round hold up, I don't know what you thought of, that second round for e mpty plates until they eat that all up [x2]
