

I'm Back

CANON

Don't get it twisted it ain't much changed
Y'all already know, I ain't got say my name
I'm still a loose canon better watch for the bang
Bang, bang
I'm back on the road better stay out my lane (yeah)
Better tell somebody I don't fear nobody
I'm so much in my feelings like I don't hear nobody, you can't hold me down
(hah)
No slack in it, Without further ado man I'm coming, you better get ready, I' m back with it

Back (on the) ground
Back (on the) ground
I'm back with it

Back (on the) ground
Back (on the) ground
I'm back with it

Back (on the) ground
Back (on the) ground
I'm back with it

Without further ado man I'm coming, you better get ready, I'm back with it

Back on the ground tell me, tell me, how that sound
Back on the ground tell me, tell me, how that sound
Back on the ground tell me, tell me, how that sound (yeah)
Without further ado man I'm coming, you better get ready, I'm back with it

Back on the field with the whole team
I'm purified all around like a gold ring
But Messing round try to gas me up
God'll air it all out
Catch me tipping like a slow leak
I talk about a lot for y'all to get to know me
A self righteous hypocrite is what I don't need
I can tell a hater really want attention but that kind of negativity around what I won't feed
It's the real that they can't take
I may never get ahead cause I can't fake it
I don't know 'bout this cannon cause he ain't safe
Co signing? I don't need it, its a rat race
And while they looking for the cheese, I'm looking for the cow
I'm working for tomorrow, they concerned for the now
I'm up 24 of em I'm tryna hit a milestone
At any opportune time till I catch a crown
It ain't a mechanism I can't cope
It ain't never been point of view that I can't scope
I can even understand when they can't get the jobs, the result is the young gotta move that dope
Drowning under water some can't even float
Tryna learn how to swim, why they riding on a boat?
They told me that I can be whatever I just wanna be the greatest but before
I get ahead you should know:

Don't get it twisted it ain't much changed

Y'all already know, I ain't got say my name
I'm still a loose canon better watch for the bang
Bang, bang
I'm back on the road better stay out my lane (yeah)
(I'm back) T-t-tell somebody I don't fear nobody
I'm so much in my feelings like I don't hear nobody, you can't hold me down
(hah)
No slack in it, Without further ado man I'm coming, you better get ready, I'
m back with it

Back on the ground tell me, tell me, how that sound

I wouldn't listen if you had me on the phone wicha
And as I think about my life I gotta lead better, cause I ain't perfect I ca
