Renaissance

CANON

Remnants of Art from eons ago
Give us this wisdom inspire the soul.
Stories of love and stories of woe
Remnants of Art from eons ago.

Civilizations stood before time
Passing their torches to give us a sign
Music whose melodies hold you sublime.
Civilizations stood before time.

Statues still stand in the ruins of war
Symbols of life from once long before.
The doors of Atlantis are left unexplored
Statues still stand in the ruins of war.

Chorus:

Renaissance! Be born again.
Renaissance! Live on through the end
