Say Yeah

CANON

Yeah...
Hear you say yeah

Yeah...
Hear you say yeah

This is for them boys tryna act right
Day and night sin jus keeping comin
From the back left right creepin
If you hear me say yeah
You say yeah
If you tired like you had
Enough you feel like given up?
Fallin' with the same stuff
People let me hear you say yeah...

Everybody looking at her like she's useless
So the men everybody knew chuck Deuces Deuces

Would have been the song in the club
When the club full of me
Looking' like who this
Ain't nobody wanna give her time
She ain't lookin' fine next to the women
Everybody been drooling over
She was given that cold shoulder
So her self-esteem done went lower

However this Cinderella never needed fellas
For they loving in the middle of her conscious
Even though the women in the club
Gettin' all of the love from the brothas
Tryna give they prophet

Never been the kind to be the life of the party
Never got attention in the club even hardly

She never been the heartless harlots
Regardless
And of all that she really wanted
Was to be modest
Ho-However!
Yeah so the girl drew the line
In the dirt like
Bump it
Bump it
Bump it

She was tired of tryin' and she
And she was modest but she
Tired of fighting
With the cute fellas she found exciting
She was done tryin' to be what they like
And she was done tryna look for the one
The one she was a independent woman
Looking' only for the who gets it

This is for them boys tryna act right
If you hear me say yeah
You say yeah
If you tired like you had
Enough you feel like given up?
Fallin' with the same stuff
People let me hear you say yeah...

Yo, this is a toast for that one guy
Up all night
With his laptop in that porn site

For that brother that struggles
With his lust alone
His soul weakened he can't fight

He tries daily
He fails daily
Masturbation
Ain't trailed lately

Dark nights
He done lost fights
He don't know
To confess it all

Maybe he's scared
And he fears
That somebody gonna tell his peers

So he smears
His tears
Tryna cover up what God sees clear

And confession
Ain't no question
Be he wants the help
But he nervous

Oh Lord oh God
Let him come
To you cause
He hurting

And it's a
Struggle to Talk to his Sisters but None of them
Know

Because he puts
The face of those Bodies that he Looked at on that
On them porn sites

Now God oh God
Please bring
Him peace today

Yes he's flawed
He's flawed
But that's why he Changed

If you hear me say yeah
You say yeah
If you tired like you had
Enough you feel like given up?
People let me hear you say yeah...
