They gon' try to put us down
It don't matter, it don't baby
'Cause we gon' make it (We gon' make it)
Yeah we gon' make it
They gon' say that we too loud
It don't matter, it don't baby
'Cause we gon' make it (We gon' make it)
'Cause we gon' make it (We gon' make it)
Now they may try to keep you from smiling
But baby hold on to it
'Cause we gon' make it (We gon' make it)
'Cause we gon' make it (Yeah)
They may treat you like ain't nothin' to your name (Yeah)
I know baby, but let 'em say it (Let 'em say it)
'Cause we gon' make it 'cause

We still matter
We still matter (Yeah)
We still matter
We still matter
We still matter
We still matter, ooh

Yuh
Ok, life give you lemons but nobody cares
Your challenge all up in the air
I cried out but nobody's there
Been hoping for the come-up but the hard times'll run up on you but now we come prepared, that's what
Helped me so I can prepare
They lovin' my clothes and my hair
Now ain't that about a trip
Systematic oppression, we tired of this
Know they ancestors prolly proud of it
Gotta hear you talkin' now they silence it
Leaders surrounding us
Most apply my problems I been thinking I may never succeed so why share my accomplishments
Heart is sick, I don't need no more vitamins
Lord come and clean me out, clear these viruses
It's so hard staying focused
I ain't never felt this hopeless

God ain't never just gon' live ish
I just wanted you to know this
This life is a hoe, you ain't gotta love her
She gon' let you bung her, that's a blizzard
They love for livin' it ain't built for us
But God isn't one who gon' abuse you, yeah

They gon' try to put us down
It don't matter, it don't baby
'Cause we gon' make it (We gon' make it)
Yeah we gon' make it (We gon' make it)
They gon' say that we too loud
It don't matter, it don't baby
'Cause we gon' make it (We gon' make it)
'Cause we gon' make it (We gon' make it)
Now they may try to keep you from smiling
But baby hold on to it
'Cause we gon' make it (We gon' make it)
'Cause we gon' make it (Yeah)
They may treat you like ain't nothin' to your name (Yeah)
I know baby, but let 'em say it (Let 'em say it)
'Cause we gon' make it 'cause

We still matter
We still matter (Yeah)
We still matter
We still matter (Yeah)
We still matter
We still matter
We still matter
We still matter, ooh

God over everything
Won't lose no self-esteem
Even with broken dreams
Peace still surrounding me
When times gettin' harder, when nobody bothers
I still got my mother (Still got my mother)
I still got my brothers, I know I can count on my heavenly father (My heavenly father)
We gon' make it through the fire when it's blazin' (When it's blazin', yeah)
We gon' make it, watch me start my celebratin'
Every trial has a purpose, please believe that Every setback is a setup for a comeback
I see oppression on the daily
But I know a peace that's beyond me (Yeah)
We gon' make it, yeah
We gon' make it
We gon' make it
We gon' make it
We gon' make it
We gon' make it
We gon' make it
Yeah

They gon' try to put us down
It don't matter, it don't baby
'Cause we gon' make it (We gon' make it)
Yeah we gon' make it (We gon' make it)
They gon' say that we too loud
It don't matter, it don't baby
'Cause we gon' make it (We gon' make it)
'Cause we gon' make it (We gon' make it)

Now they may try to keep you from smiling
But baby hold on to it
'Cause we gon' make it (We gon' make it)
'Cause we gon' make it (Yeah)
They may treat you like ain't nothin' to your name (Yeah)
I know baby, but let 'em say it (Let 'em say it)
'Cause we gon' make it 'cause
