

Que Suerte!

Cap'n Jazz

Dictionary can swear,
She's barely aware,
Of her apparently paralyzing stares
Let me let go
Let me let go
Angel, I've never seen you
Grapevine twine and loose news noose
Sitting on your driveway
Twisting baited lines to drive me away
Let me let go
You're like a likable bully
Our favorite late night desperate phone calls
Sugar, even odd smiles are in this season
