

I'm following the only light in the northern sky
Give all that I got, blessed be you in my life
If you feel the set, put 'em up real high
The party don't stop, we celebrate in this life
Cause one day the city will turn into dust
So until that day comes, I'll be liftin' You up
You're the only light that won't ever die
All the way up, way up in the northern sky

Yeah, the boy devoted
The coldest, and you know it
Been at it for a while so don't ask me where I'm goin'
I'm the type that's just gon' show it
Out here in the moment
So if you down with that, pack your bags, let's keep it coasted
I'm just living life to the fullest, not many can say that they do this Traveled 'round the world and back, here this fact
Don't believe me ?
Me? Yeah, I'm gone, so I guess this is goodbye
Only one place that I'm headed
Straight up through the northern sky

Way up in the northern sky

I'm following the only light in the northern sky
Give all that I got, blessed be you in my life
If you feel the set, put 'em up real high
The party don't stop, we celebrate in this life
Cuz one day the city will turn into dust
So until that day comes, I'll be liftin' You up
You're the only light that won't ever die
All the way up, way up in the northern sky

Oh it's obvious that I'm confident
Ray bans and my moccasins
Mockin' my prerogatives
And Imma still roll out, no marketing
Pull up in the Mazda 6
Tell 'em, "I'm parkin' here!"
Pardon the art, know it's hard to chill
Now I'm turnin' the whole park into Parkinsons, cause it's shaky
Aight, you ain't gotta "ok" it
You ain't really gotta go say it
You ain't really gotta go crazy (you crazy)
We all over the country (country)
That's so Paisley
Imago Dei this place
Ok, ok, boy, let me stop playin'
Everybody better run it right now
Run it right now, cause He comin' back now
If you runnin' yo' mouth, better ándale
Come to face God cause He runnin' this house
So devout, boy, you know we gon' shout
Running down in the crowd and we never back down
Lay it down to the cross
Get a crown to the lost
Let the crowd get lost in the (northern sky)
