

Tear Me Apart

Capsize

So watch me brave the same storm outside
Watching through your window with your perfect eyes

Tear me apart
Just the same
As you would with anyone else

Stabbed me again and then
Pulled out the knife
But I'm still bleeding out
It's what you love
It's what I hate
And you can't get enough now
I wanted you to know that
I'm never coming home
'Cause I can't find myself
Unless I'm all alone

I wanted you to know that
I'm never coming home
'Cause I can't find myself
Unless I'm all alone
Unless I'm all alone
Unless I'm all alone

So watch me brave the same storm outside
Watching through your window with your perfect eyes

Fuck me over again and see
This time around
No one's laughing now
This is how it feels
What it means
To drown in the pain you're giving me
I wanted you to know that
I'm never coming home
'Cause I can't find myself
Unless I'm all alone
Unless I'm all alone
Unless I'm all alone

So watch me brave the same storm outside
Watching through your window with your perfect eyes
So watch me brave the same storm outside
Watching through your window with your perfect eyes

Tear me apart
Just the same

Tear me apart
Just the same
As you would with anyone else [x3]

So watch me brave the same storm outside
Watching through your window with your perfect eyes

Watching through your window with your perfect eyes
So watch me brave the same storm outside
