

Dear John Exam

Captain Everything!

Just another reminder of
The way it all fell apart
It wont go back to
The way it was
I think it's time to Make a newer
Start again
Learn it over
Repeat it after me
You know I do agree
It was all down to me
But it'll all be different
Next time
Its another story of
Things that I have to say
Think I know how it ends because
For you and me it's always been
The way to go
Talk it over
Whatever you believe
You know I will agree
It was all down to me
But it'll all be different
Next time
Itll all be different
Next time
Well it'll all be different
Next time I know
That I could not see clearly
But tomorrow
I will have to learn it all again
You know I do agree
It was all down to me
But it'll all be different
Next time
Well it'll all be different
Next time
Well it'll all be different
Next time
