

It Would Be So Nice

Captain Sensible

It would be so nice
It would be so nice
It would be so nice
Be so nice

Everybody wakes and in the morning
Hot tea, can't stop yawning
Pass the butter, please
Everybody reads the Daily Standard
Reading all about a plane that's landed
Upside down

But no one knows what I did today
There can be no other way
And I would just like to say

It would be so nice
It would be so nice
It would be so nice
Be so nice

Everybody lives beneath the ceiling
Living out a life that sends them reeling
To a distant place

But no one knows what I did today
There can be no other way
And I would just like to say

It would be so nice
It would be so nice
It would be so nice
Be so nice
It would be so nice
It would be so nice
It would be so nice
Be so nice
It would be so nice
It would be so nice
It would be so nice
Be so nice
It would be so nice
It would be so nice
It would be so nice
Be so nice
It would be so nice
It would be so nice
It would be so nice
Be so nice
It would be so nice
