

Talk

Captain Tractor

Lets sit down and talk
Just you and me
About inconsequential things
About how life gets in the way
Of every little thing

I think I need a coffee
I think I need a couch
'Cause I'm too drunk to care
And everything seems pretty good to me

Lets sit down and talk
Just you and me
About love and hate and

How little all that bullshit
Really means anyway

I think I need a cigarette
I think I need a couch
'Cause I'm too drunk to talk
And I won't remember anyway

Lets sit down and talk just you and me
Why we can't we talk just you and me
We never talk just you and me
Why can't we talk just you and me
