

Too Far to Fall

Captain Tractor

I looked in the mirror, at tired angry eyes
I see my history, passing by passing by
I had a job once, you know I could have had it all
Could have climbed that ladder
But it's just too far to fall
I had a dream

I had a girl once, she was the apple of my eye
I fought and won her, she was mine she was mine
And she told me, that she loved me best of all
I tried to hold her, but it was too far to fall

I had a dream
That I was on a bridge so far from home
I met an old man standing in the rain and all alone
He said that he was there to say goodbye and jump the wall
But in the end it was too far to fall

So I broke the mirror, take the bad luck as it comes
I keep on living, on the run on the run
And from the trenches, can hear the victory call

I'd love to climb out, but it's just too far to fall

I had a dream
That I was on a bridge so far from home
I met an old man standing in the rain and all alone
He said that he was there to say goodbye and jump the wall
But in the end it was too far to fall

I had a dream
That I was on a bridge so far from home
I met an old man standing in the rain and all alone
He said that he was there to say goodbye and jump the wall
But in the end it was too far to fall

I had a dream
That I was on a bridge
I had a dream
That I was all alone

I had a dream
That I stood up on the wall
I had a dream
That it was too far to fall

I had a dream
